October 28 - Wednesday

Golan Heights

Enjoy a fresh Israeli breakfast at the kibbutz. We will be meeting with female entrepreneurs and artists in the Galilee this morning. Continue to Kibbutz Kfar Giladi, hear about the history of the kibbutz, meet with a local "kibbutznik" artist. Next visit the Banias stream for a short hike, enjoy the nature in this beautiful national park.

Get ready for a delicious dinner that will be cooked and served in a Druze home in Majdal Champs, which is situated on the Syrian border. Hear from your host how she became an entrepreneur in the Druze community and what it is like to live so close to the Syrian border.

October 29 - Thursday

Jerusalem

Check out at Pastoral Kfar Blum Hotel.

Drive to Kibbutz Neot Mordechai. Visit the Neot shoe factory on the kibbutz, you will be able to see the production process on a guided tour of the factory before being able to shop at the factory store.

Next visit the Hula valley nature reserve. The common Crane will hopefully be present as it stops in the valley whilst on the migration south. You will be able to walk in the park or rent a golf cart or even ride a bicycle (extra- pay on site).

Continue to the artists quarter in Safed, to hear about the Kabbalah and visit a 16th century synagogue.

Continue to Jerusalem, check in at Bezalel Hotel- Jerusalem

Upon arrival, feel instantly immersed within the Bezalel's sophisticated style and a unique showcase of Israeli art and design, which combines inspiration from its surroundings into a contemporary aesthetic that threads together both the spirit and character of Jerusalem.
